

July Parish News

It's all happening this month

Pelham beach multi Use Games Area

The construction has gone well. From the beginning of July this long awaited – about 5 years – amenity will be available. Schools, youth groups and sports clubs will be able to pre-book times for a small charge. At all other times it will be FREE from 10.am – 9.pm. The trustees of the Foreshore Trust provided the space and paid for the construction. A big thank you to them.

It needs to be short, textable and unforgettable.*

The Chess Square, George Street

On Tuesday 13th July the sculptures and refurbished space will be formally opened. Funded with Awards for All grant from the BLF over a year ago the work started with Year 6 pupils at Torfield School. They visited the Blue Reef aquarium, the fishing beach and the square to come up with designs. Leigh Dyer our local artist / metal smith then turned the ideas into the sculptures. The original artists have been invited to the opening. Hastings Council have refurbished the space and used Leigh to make wonderful new railings. The new Mayor Cllr Kim Forward will be coming with other important folk –but especially the children.

Allotment Party Sunday 18th July from 1.00 pm

Our annual outdoor get together will take place at Lower Torfield Allotments – thanks to the allotment owners for use of this lovely space. The food will be provided by Flavours of India and includes vegetarian dishes. Tickets are good value at just £18. They can be purchased at Nelson House Antiques, High Street [open Thursdays – Sundays 11 am to 6 pm] or on the day at the gate.
